Nothinglooks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that, a common weed, growing in the pastures, and along old stone walls, should care every humor in the system; yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has so start. There are no its nor ands about it, suitins some cases, but not yours. He has peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicanity of Boston, and knows was soft and dabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who bject to a sick headache, one bot the will always enrelt. It gives great relief in enterth and dizziness. Some who have taken it have been contive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound, it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings, but yon must not be alarmed—they always disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it—on tha contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravaguate encominms of it that ever man listened to.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eatthebest you san, and enough of it.

WEDNESDAY .. - JANUARY 1, 1857.

We call the attention of our readers to the full report of the speech of the Hen. W. H. English, which we find in the Congressional Globe, and are encoled to lay before them to-day. It is import at in this latitude as presenting in the fullcet and olearest sense the definition of a Northern squatter sovereignty Democrat. Col. Marshall and the Journal have been trying to frighten the South with a horrible bugbear of "that worst form of Abolitioniem, squatter sovereignty." Let their dupes read Mr. English's speech, and extract from it three grains of Abolitionism if they can; and should they so far deceive themselves as to fancy they have succeeded in this, lot them point us and the country to a solitary men of their party north of Mason and Dixon's line, who dare express on the floor of Congress such manly, patriotic, and rational sentiments.

The fact is they, can't do it. Mr. English is a noble specimen of a national Democrat, whatever may be his interpretation of the Kansas bill on the question of the period at which a territory may assert her sovereignty, and every word and sentiment of his speech breathe end speak it. He is, bosides, a gentleman of very high order of talent, whose mind grasps the greet constiintional policy of the country with the legio and foresight of a statesman-a young and growing statesman, supable of filling with honor any station to which he aspires, and one who would seem to have a high destiny before him.

The editor of the ergan is fond of letting his reeders know that he is frequently noticed by the Democratic press. He pretends to complain of it; but he is evidently very much tickled with the attentions he has received. They are important just now, as he has lost credit with his party, and it is important to show them that he is of much consequence still; Democratic papers one of the best and purest men in the country, still notice him. There is a sore point with him, about which he is very anxious. He advised the Enow-Nothings of Indiana to vote for the Black Republican candidate for Governor. He knows how this advice is everywhere regarded in this State: and he strives with vain efforts to relieve himself from the odium that attaches to his

This advice, he insists, was to help Fillmore; and that motivo he thinks will cover not only a mul-Fillmore, he advised his friends to support the Abolition party of Indiana 1 But, as this single reason is not sufficient, it is necessary to allege that Willard is a Freesciler, and that the Demo-eratic party is a Freescil party. He goes back to 1849, and finds a resolution or two of Freescilish color, that were juggled through a Democratio in the spirit of that language applied by one of that Willard is a Freesciler, and that the Demo-Convention at that period; and remarks, "it is old to his onemy: said"-they were offered by Willard-"it Is said." Now, it is not said by anybody; and it is false if it is said. Willard never wrote a resolution in a political convention in his life; and never wrote on the siavery question except his speeches and his acts; these, fortunately for the public, and unfortunately for the ergan, the whole country

We expect the organ to persevere in wild and worthless assertions, in order, if possible, to hide the fact that he practically identified himself with language, and particularly by the gottlemen from the Abelizion party of our neighboring State Ohio [Mr. Sherman], of Kansas-investigatingthe Abolition party of our neighboring State.

When every patriot of the State of Indiena sectional doctrines of the Black Republican party of that State, an editor in Kentucky, the organ of a party here, was advising a corrupt coalition for the purpose of getting power. So the matter stands. The whole South soe it, and appreciate it. The whole country, moreover, know the position occupied by Willard. Whilst he was heard here in Kentucky as well as in indiana advocating the rights of the South, against a formidation of their people. They were led to believe it will be a free State, and voted under that impression. Had not sneh been the case, Bunchanna and Breeklindige never would have received any of their votes." ting the rights of the South, against a formidable and fanatical sectional party, he was assalled by a Journal in the Santh, and his Abolition opponent supported. Now it is idle to rail about one doctrine or another, whilst prectical action is for the Abelitionists.

The editor of the Journal is noticed a good deal; he is delighted that he is noticed; and if absurd assertions can attract attention, he will these charges I shall speak not only my own not fail to be noticed. His assertion that Willard is an Abolitionist, and that the Democratic party in Indiana. I feel it my dry to repel these charges becames Indiana is party of Indiana are Freesoll, will certainly amuse the public. Few would venture on such assertions before white people that could read and racy. With thom I have stood in many a hardwrite. We expect him next, when his necessities require it, to swear that Jack Hale, Seward, and thank Heaven, have been very few in number. Giddings are the best pro-slavery men in Con-Notwithstanding the advent of new political Giddings are the best pro-slavery men in Con-

Fuel! Fuel! It has been said that when things get very bad they must get better ; and we suppose that will be true hereafter; but what is to be done in the meantime? Fifty cents abushel for coal! If that rate should continue a few weeks, how are thousands to be kept warm in such weather as this? We don't see what's to be done? but the evil may be mitigated some by burning wood. An air-tight stove will warm a room abent as cheaply acceratic party, and feel like clinging to it with the affection which Ruth manifested for Naomi. It has stood the Union's friend in the one-fourth of the wood of a common fireplace. It is neat, and is very convenient to kindle and keep up a fire in it. If our people had generally tried the article, it would need no resommendation these times. It would need no resommendation these times. It would be very commonly used even if coal were plentiful. But then, if wood should he were remeably substituted for coal, it would be representatives, claim the attention of the House and the country to the charges brought by the be more generally substituted for coal, it would try in repelling the charges brought by the rise in value—it would do so to some extent, per-

Experience is said to be a good teacher; but it can't teach some people; although it gives severe lessons. We have had this terrible tax for coal several times within the last four or five years;

A correspondent suggests the name of the Hon. Elijah Hise for a cabinet appointment. We have taken no part in oabinet-making, and, therefore, have not suggested any one from this us; as a priest and statesman, he has few equals enjwhere. He eccupies an exalted position in public estimation in this Commonwealth, and would adorn any station where ability, firmness, and integrity are required. He is a Democrat, and has always been one, through good and evil report; and has taken an active part in every contest. In a political disonesien it would be hard to find his equal. If a cabinet appointment should be shought of from Keatucky, Judge Hise would not be overlooked among the distinguished men of the Commonwealth; for none stand higher in the estimation of the Democracy of the State.

The Know-Nothings must not commit themselves against squatter sovereignty because the organ ratio at the North at all men are estimated to the propose of the State. State: but Judge Hise needs no compliment from the organ rails at It now, and applies all manner of hard names to the doctrine. He has heretofore hated everything he now admires, as he now hates equatter sovereignty. It will not, probably, be long before he is smitten with affection for what he new affects to detest so much. Beware, then, Know-Nethings, how you commit yourselves against squatter sovereignty. You will have to take all back; or abandon the organ.

The squatter sovereignty is a squatter sovereignty. It will not, probables against squatter sovereignty. It will not, probables as a squatter sovereignty. It is by the Constitution of the United States; otherwise this and firm in support of the Black Republics and it is by the Constitution of the United States; otherwise this and firm in support of the Black Republics as a squatter sovereignty. It is by the Constitution of the United States; otherwise this and firm in support of the Black Republics as a squatter sovereignty. The editor of the organ tries to account slow of that institution. This same man made the ground that Willard was the biggest Abolifor ble advice to his friends to vote for Morton, by these pretences are abourd. There is another hypothesis that is true in itself, and it accounts for the act in a simple and natural way; and that in Ohio, and voting to send Black Republicans to is, that the editor, who gave the advice, was a Freesoiler himself, and a sympathizer with the Black Republicans, as well as an enemy of Denocracy. This hypothesis agrees with the second, and accounts for the act. It is not only credible, but very plain and simple. It is idle to tell nen with an ounce of brains that the advice would help Fillmore; everybody knows that the result of Morton's success would have been a Fremont trinmph, and as to the Freesoilism of Willard: that will do to tell the marines. The est of mankind will laugh at it, as a capital joke. No; no such flummery will do; the object was to help Fremont; if not for Fremont's sake, at

SPEECH OF HON. W. H. ENGEISH. OF INDIANA,

In the House of Representatives. Deccuber 17, '56,

On the question of referring the President's Message to the Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, and the printing of teu thousand copies thereof.

Mr. English said: Mr. Speaker: I here not sought the floor npor on in reference to the President's message as somewhat unluteresting and unprofiteble to this House and the country. I always regret to hear the question of African slavery discussed in these halls. In my humble judgment, it would be wiser and better for Congress to consume less time in talking about this delicate and dangerons subject, and more in attending to the legitimate business of legislation. As a general thing, sir, the speeches of gentlemen upon the Republisan side have been mere rehashes of those uttered by them upon the stump during the late eauvass, and do not think their oratorial efforts ere of a character likely to do much good, or to shange the political sentiments of anybody. Perhaps there has been no more striking instance of this than in the case of my colleage [Mr. Cumback], who ad-dressed the Honse this morning. Sir, the points made by my colleague are the same, if I mistake not, made by him upon many estump during the late canvace; and, it I am correctly informed, he sound npon all political questions, but a plain, unsophisticated farmer, who remained at home and did not make a speech during the whole cenvacs. Now, Mr. Speaker, if my colleague, after having eccupied some two months of time in mak-ing this speech before the people, where he was unanswered by his competitor, failed to convince them as to the correctness of his positions, how ean he hope to convince this House upon the present occasion? He and his doctrines were repudiated at home by a majerity of some fifteen handred, notwithstanding he had been elected at the preceding election by a majority of six or seven hundred. He twits the President with having to forget that his position may be likened to that of the men found guilty by a jury of his country,

"Great let me eall him, for he conquered me." Sir, I do not rise with the intention of follow ing the example which has been set by my colleague and others in making any extended re-marks. I only sought the floor for the purpose of a letter on a political question, and has no record answering certain oberges which have been made against the Democracy of the North, and against the Democracy of my own State, in reference to the position which they occupied in the late can-vass. It was charged by my colleague that the Democratic party of Indiana evaded the great issues before the country, and pandered to the spirit of Free-Soilism. The same charge has been made by other gentlemen in even stronger

They fought the great battle on the principles enunciated by the Cincinnati convention. There was no attempt to dodge the issues. They made the fight fairly end of the contest of the contest. medium. I undertake to say there was no attemp equarely, upon broad national principles; and my colleage and his associates of the other side ought to be the last men to some the Domocratio party of Indiana with any desire to pander to the spirit of Abolitionism. They know, or ought to know that in their own ranks were not only to be found Free-Soilers but Abolitionists. Yes, sir, the lowest and most God-forsaken, nigger-teeling Abolitionists were to be found in that State doing battle against the national Democracy, side by sid with my colleague and the leaders of the Black Republican party; and, I am sorry to add, of the Know-Nothing party also. Now, with a view of showing the position the Democratic party of Indiana did occupy in the late canvass, and also with the further view of come a voice from their leading organ, cheering to a territory, does he mean that the people when canvass, and also with the further view of the receipt of a territory, does he mean that the people when the Know-Nothing parties occupied in the same canvass in my State, I will read the receipt of a territory does he mean that the people when in a territorial condition have that freedom?

Mr. Indiana speaks of the freedom of the people of a territory, does he mean that the people when in a territorial condition have that freedom?

Mr. English. "Monsient Tonson come again."

[Laughter.] I believe that the will of the people the Indiana fusion convention, adopted May 1856, being the same convention which nomine-ted Mr. Morton, the fusion candidate for Governor, at the late election: "Resulted, That we are uncompromisingly opposed to the extension of slavery; and that we afterly requisite the platform of principles adopted by the self-tyled Democratic Convention of this state, inforsing and approving the Kaness and Nebraska iniquity. "Reserved, That we will resist, by all proper means, the admission of any slave State into this Union, formed out of the territories secured to freedom by the Missouri compromise, or otherwise."

Now, these resolutions were adopted at e State nvention composed of Republicans and Knowethings, and they show conclusively not only the ceition which the Democratio party occupied, but the position, zlee, of this fusion party. The Democratic party avowed itself in favor of the principles and doctrines of the Kansas-Nebraska bill, while the Republican party repudlated those doc-trines, and announced to the world that they were proceed to the extension of slavery under any and li oirenmetances, and would not vote to admit a State if she procented herself with a constitution olerating slavory, even though it should be the unarimous wish of the people of the Territory.
And what is more, this same man Morton, who was nominated by that convention as the fusion andidate, had been a member of the celebrated Pittsburg convention, over which Mr. Blair preided, and was a member of the committee on re olutions. And you, sir, in a contest botween the man, covered all over with Freesoilism, and standing upon the sectional platform which I have read, and Governor Willard, who stood upon broad national grounds. I regret to say that not only the Bleck Republican party supported Mer-ton, but, in the main, the know-Nothing party did the same thing. And as it may be a matter of surprise to some persons upon this floor, I will state that in a contest of this kind between seeionalism upon one side, and nationalism upon the other, involving the most vital interests of the South, in a neighboring State and in the district adjoining the one I represent, in the district re-prosented by the able and distinguished contlean who addressed the House the other day [Mr.

Mr. H. Marshall. I mersiy wish to correct a misapprehension of the gentleman in representing the Louisville Journal as my organ. He is mistaken in point of fact; and when he speeks of the paragraph from that paper to which he has alluded—which I never saw, but have heard commented upon—I merely desire to say, that the anggestion imputed to that journal, and sorrectly, I presume, of a desire upon the part of that journal that the Know-Nothings of Indiana should take part in the election of Morton as against Willard, does not find a response in the Know-Nothing party in my section of the the gentleman, and certainly shall not do so Inten-tionally; but the fact is notorious that in several articles preceding the election, the Know-Nothings of Indiana were encouraged and solicited to cant their votes for Morton as against Governor Willard. Here is one article from the Journal which will do for a sample:

"State Rection in Indiana.—Our opinion is frequently asked by our American friends in Indiana as to the course they ought to take in their October election. They have better means, and are no doubt better able, to form a just opiniou upon the subject than we are. Nevertheless, we do not hesitate to asket our very strong belief, that, to promote the great national cause which they and we have alike at heart, they should, nich their whole hearts, support Mr. Morton Such hints as these met with a cordial respons on the part of the Know-Nothing brothron in Indiana. Listen to the following peremptory order issued to the faithful by the New Albany Tribune, the chief organ of the party in that State, and which is published within four miles "Let there be no clashing between the friends of Fill mure and Fremont, because their sauss is out cause Let the energies of the friends of each be divided against Buchanan, and we will have no more slave soil to curse our Government." I think the gentleman from Kentucky will not make an issue with me touching this point, thet the Know-Nothings of Indiana, in accordance with the suggestion of the great orgen of that party in his own State, generally voted with the Black Re-publican party and with the Abolitionists for this man Morton and the rest of the fusion State tick et. And I undertake to say, that not only did the Know-Nothings of Indiana pursue that course, but that many of the Know-Nothings of the State of Kentucky, in that particular region, sympathized with the Black Republicans and with the Abolitionists in thoir contest with the national Democracy.

Mr. H. Marshall. I desire to know of the man in the country believes it to be true.

Mr. English. Sir, I have already read an ofisial rescintion, which shows a marked difference between the position occupied by Gov. Willard end the Democratio party, and that occupied by Mr. Morton and the finion party of that State. I have shown that the difference is crued for an argulated by the people who are to subject only to the constitution of the United States. Mr. H. Marshall. Will the gentleman from Indiana enlighten me upon his opinion of the doc-trine of equatter sovereignty? Mr. English. Oh, thet is a matter of minor im-

In other words, that the doctrine of exclusion and squatter sovereignty are, to the slaveholder, the same doctrine precisely. There I stand; and I challenge the gentleman or his party to meet me here or elsewhere upon that

Mr. English. Mr. Speaker, I have no disposition to evade the issue tandered by the gontloman from Kentucky. I am willing to concede to him and his party, that there is some difference between the positions occupied by the Domocratic party at the North, and that eccupied by a portion of the Democratic party at the South, upon this particular question of popular or squatter sovereignty; but I do not regard that difference to any considerable extent as material, as some other gentlemen seem to do; because we all agree that whenever the people of a Territory come to form a State government, the will of the people olearly expressed, shall be the paramonat law and that that shell be an end to the whole matter That I conceive is the essential point, and upon i there is no material difference between the position which I cconpy, and which the Democrati

THE CHILLS AND F' LVER.

We understand there is a vacancy lu the would fully represent the wishes of the peoples by tery. How can they buy coal, at fifty cents per was a candidate, receiving, we believe, some 2000 votes; at least, he was next highest to the candidate elected.

REVIVING AN OLD CUSTOM .- For some time af- Where will the bread and meat come fromter the advent of Hindooism in Louisville, our where the clothing-and how will the rent be about the suburbs of the city in quest of coffeedefenseless foreigners, drinking their liquors, eating their confections, and supplying themselves generally with desirable articles, all of which they directed to be charged to "Sam," or some other mythical individual of limited means and poor credit. If the proprietor rejected the transaction, and insisted upon prompt payment, he was leg, as a result of his temerity.

Just as we had congratulated curseives that this relie of barbarism had passed away, Officer yesterday, with taking drinks at coffee-houses, re-Work-house.

MUNICIPAL. - We are informed that Councilman Gilliss "spread himself" during the sitting of his board on Monday evening. He reflected upon the characterized his famous "report," and closed, we learn, by proposing that the Council should take some action in regard to the naturalization laws!

Soma changes were made in the Police force of the city, as we indicated several days ago would be the case. Officer Ben Rust has been elected Day Watchman, vice Officer John H. Williams re signed; J. S. Gallagher was elected Night Watch man; and also J. H. Kerr Policemen in the Fourth

J. W. Gray was elected City Engineer in th place of W. F. Beach, resigned. J. W. Huston was also elected School Truste to fill a vacancy in the Eighth Word.

OWEN'S HOTEL.-We learn that our friends Smith, Horne & Co., have assumed the proprie torthip of Owen's Hotel, Mr. Stealey resigning The new company is efficient in every particular We can commend Mr. Horne from a personal knowledge of him. He has been connected with Owen's Hotel for the last five years, and, by taste and experiense, is eminently adapted to the hotel business. This house is centrally located, admirably arranged, and is desirable in every particular as a boarding house, or as a transient home for wayfarers.

Mir. Stealey will remain at the desk of the hote for a short time, and would be pleased to see his friends.

HIGHWAYMEN ABOUT .- We areinformed that two young gentlemen were attacked by soveral men, near the corner of Sixth and Jefferson ets. about two c'clock on Monday night, who demanded their money. Being anarmed and anable to cope with so formidable a party, the young men fled one of them making his escape into the jail, where he slarmed the keepers. No clue was obtained as to the identity of the villains.

Our citizens should be very guarded in their movaments at late hours of the night, for we learn that the city is infested by large numbers of these marauders.

HEGRANDLY BRUTALITY. - Jobn Brown, an uptowner, treats his wife and family of five children very brutally at times, as appears by complain: day night he treated his wife to a plunge-bath it the wash-, ab, and thrust her out of doors to dry or freezs. The good woman was found wandering about the street by the night-watchman, and taken home, and John Brown, the bruta! husband, was taken to jail, as he deserved to be Judge Johnston yesterday held the fellow to bai in the sam of $200 for his good behavior three

RUSSIAN WAR-MOZART HALL .- This exhibition maintains Its position, although our city has an extra supply of amusements. It is, as we have before said, undonbtedly the best exhibition that has ever visited Louisville, and it is to be reight, with the exception of about 400 bbs. flour hoped that no one will allow it to leave without in the hold, which was slightly damaged, was paying it a visit. Some of the scenes are perfect miracles of ingenuity, and the impression they make is of the most lasting kind. The storm seens was received with torrents of applance, and the closing one brought the house down. This an audience wild with enthusiasm. From the week is positively the last; it will close on Satur-

MOTEMENTS OF INDIANA BANKERS,-We learn that W. C. De Paw, Esq , the wealthy Indiana banker, is making arrangements to take up his abode in New York city. He will be an important accession to Wall street.

Dr. Elijoh Newland, the late officient Tressures of State of I diana, at present Cashier of the Bank of Salem, in Washington county, it is understood, will soon open a banking-house in New RESISTING AN OFFICER .- A policeman who was attemping to arrest Martin Haydon, on Monday evening, for disorderly conduct, met with a firm resistance in the discharge of his duty, Haydon drawling a knifa apon the officer. The man was knocked down and arrested, however, and was held to bail in the sum of $200 for three months yesterday, by Judge Johnston, in Police Court.

The horne of some of the oxen in South ern Africa are immense in size, and measure from six to eight feet from tip to tip, but notwithstanding their great size they are not as destructive to the human family as some of the horns taken in this city. Some of the gnests have recoully appeared in velvet bats with large brims, in the English style, salied chapeau de l'alliance.

CALL OF THE DOCKET .- At the recumption of the regular monthly call of the Police docket yesterday, T. Haggin was fined $50 for carrying concealed weapone; Eliza Napper, for keeping a disorderly house, was fined one cent; and Rebecca Waters, upon a similar charge, was dismissed. Several other cases were continued.

RESIGNED .- Dr. W. Lee White baving gone mere extensively into the banking business, has found it necessary to resign the office of Coroner, the reeignation to take effect the first of February. The appointing power for the nnexpired term will devolve upon Judge Garland, of the County cure of frost bites, chilblains, and chapped hands

EDITORIAL. -We learn that Mr. Louis Sterlin the late talented editor of the People's Friend, at Cincinnati, is soon to be associated with Mr Doern, in the editorial management of the Louisville Anxeiger. This will be a valuable addition to the columns of our German contemporary.

God help the poor! and may the city shape of a gang of vagabonds, who went prowling authorities, and all who have any humanity left in them, look to them, that they do not perish, houses, confectionaries, and groceries, kept by even in the midst of those who could aid them without injuring themselves.

It will not do to depend on the Ohio river as a cans of supplying fuel for the city; it has been voted a nuisance long age. In the midst of such ressures as the present, we sometimes hear the fogice talk about coal companies, and the necessity of at once placing Louisville in connection with lucky if he did not lose an eye, or an arm, or a the coal fields of Grayson and Breckinridge counties; but, if the river opens, and a few flatboat loads of coal reach our wharf, the project is no longer agitated, and, again and again, we suf-Scay charges one Steinberger, in Police Court for the same want of fuel. Will our capitalists day morning, a small boy while drawing a sled nevar learn that it will not do to depend on the fusing to pay the reckening, and whipping the Pittsburg mines for coal for Kentucky consumpbar-keeper, who was rulgar enough to demand a tion? Our railroads will not supply the city liquidation of his bill. CLOSING ENTERTAINMENT OF THE PEAK FAX-ILY, -The endiess variety, as well as unparalleled novelty of the meritorious entertsimments given by this popular family, have created a great sensation among our music-loving citizens in this city, as well as in all the principal cities of the Union. Last evening they again met with that success they so richly deserve, the applause throughout the evening being nnanimous, and their attractive and high standard of music was given with a fit appreciation of the composer, and off ctively rendered in every particular. On the whole they constitute a family of musical genius and accomplishments rarely united, and are at home with Bells, Harps, or voices, and always sure to please. We trust that Mr. Peak will be induced to visit us again. Their ro:eption would be a glorious one. May their sneeess hrough the South meet their highest anticipa-

Without any reference as to what the " manaeers and lamp-lighters of the gas company thinks." omebody about the Jonepal is evidently "moonstruck." It is but a day or two since the editor was apostrophising the new moon as having mada is appearance the previous evening, at a time when the almanac-makers told us Cynthia was pretty well on in her second quarter. Donbtless he lamp-lighters "thinks" to reserve their artificial light, that the broth of a new moon may have ome chance to shine.

FATAL APPRAYS .- We loarn from the Vicksburg Whig, that an affray occurred between young man named Irby and another named Norton, at Backhead, a few days ago, in which young Irby shot Norton, killing him almost instantly. The Whig further says:

A dual was fought near Napoleon, Ark., last week, botween Dr. McCullough and Mr. Mason, a merchant of Napoleon. The former was wounded slightly, and the latter, it is supposed, fatally.

SINKING OF THE STEAMER OBLEANS .-- Captain Smith furnishes us with the particulars of the sinking of the eteamer Orleans, near Connersville, on the 16th ult. She was so damaged by striking a snag, as to cause her to fill rapidly. All the saved. The injury to the boat was not serious, and she will be raised immediately.

THEATER .-- Another full house last night, and rising of the curtain to the close, everybody was pleased. These most excelient artistes will appear to-night in "Shandy Maguire" and "Mischievous Annie." In the latter, Mrs. Florence will sing Bobbin' Around and perform a Spanish Dance Secure your seats early, if you wish to enjoy the performances.

Said Ned to the maid, when she woke, "Dear Nell, I have stolon a kiss: "Good gracious! O, pray, give, it back! The deed you have done was a-Miss."

OUR LACK OF VARIETY TO-DAY .- We can well afford to sacrifice our characteristic variety to-day to the admirable speech of Hon. Wm. H. English Many new things and good things, intended for the current issue, are reserved, in consequence of which the Democrat to-morrow will be more interesting, sparkling and brilliant even than is its wont on ordinary occasions.

COPARTNERSHIP NOTICE.—It will be seen by reference to another column that Messra. Prather, Smith & Co., have associated with them in their establishment Mr. Wm. H. C. Dryden, of our men of Lonisville, and will be found to be a most courteous and polite dealer.

HORRIBLE MURDER. -The Indianapolis Sentinel says that a gentleman by the name of Gamhart, was murdered at Gallion, O., on the night of the 21 inst. Suspicion attaches to a man by the nams of Starr, who has for some time been jestone of Gambart's attentions to a lady. Starr fled.

Owing TO A PERANGEMENT of my pecuniary afairs, consed by siskness and long absence from business, it has become necessary for me to adopt some means to raise a sum of mency by a specified time. With this view I have determined to ofter my goods to customers at cost, which is far below the regular market prins, and I will continue to make sales at that reduction for a few days only. I have availed myself of the best market in Europa and this country in the purchase of my stock of WATCHES, JEW BLRY, &c., and consequently have bought the best goods at the lowest prices, and will sell them correspondingly low. My reputation in this community for a long term for fair dealing and general intagrity, I trust, will avert any susplient as to my motivas in thus offering my goods at cost.

There being nat a particle of mercankie philosophy in seiling without profit, the observer may naturally sake what these phrases mean. Are merchants becoming so exceedingly charitable and humane as to vie with each other in supplying the wants of the community gratultously! In explanation, three reactons can be given, viz: Bealers either intend to quit business, want to get rid of old stock, or else their receips are so light as to make it imperative to raise them by any means. A fourth resonn has been given, but has little foundation in fact, viz: Gentlemen may have made profit enough. This is preceded, but not very probable—not even to the
